Joys and Concerns

Unison Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus, Our hearts are downcast as many troubles surround us. We are too feeble to fight the dark forces that come against us. You are our hiding place and deliverer from all harm. Your faithfulness guides us, and your power shields us. May we draw strength from you to engage in life’s battles so that we may be victorious in the end. In your precious name. Amen.

"Go Now In Peace"

Go now in peace. Never be afraid. God will go with you each hour of every day. Go now in faith, steadfast, strong, and true. Know He will guide you in all you do. Go now in love, and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see. God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith, and in love. Amen. Amen. Amen.

The Living Stone

Jesus, the living stone, is a testament to the integrity of the Scriptures. God directed Moses to strike a rock in the Sinai desert, and Israel drank water from the split rock. The rock represents Christ, stricken in Calvary to produce the living water. With his fingers, God inscribed the Ten Commandments on the stone tablets and gave us rules for living. The word of God became flesh in Jesus, completed the old law, and gave us the new law of salvation. Abraham placed Isaac, the son of God's promise, upon a rock for sacrifice in Mt. Moriah.

The very place that Abraham placed Isaac was at Cavalry in Jerusalem, where Jesus, God's only begotten son, became the lamb to take away the sin of the world.

On Easter morning, angels rolled the stone from the rock tomb, and Jesus rose again. The split rock at Horeb was a foreshadowing of Christ's resurrection. The fulfillment of these prophetic events testify that Jesus is the Messiah (Christ) and the son of God. After God revealed these truths to Simon, Jesus gave Simon the name Peter (rock) and built his church upon Peter's confession. Jesus is the rock of salvation, our refuge and shield. A life built upon the rock is secure from any and all storms. All other ground is sinking sand.

I Will Sing of My Redeemer

Philip P. Bliss, 1838-1876

James McGranahan, 1840-1907

1. I will sing of my Re-deem-er And His won-drous love to me;
 2. I will tell the won-drous sto-ry, How, my lost es-tate to save,
 3. I will praise my dear Re-deem-er; His tri-um-phant pow'r I'll tell,
 4. I will sing of my Re-deem-er And His heav'n-ly love to me;

On the cru-el Cross He suf-fered, From the curse to set me free.
 In His bound-less love and mer-cy He the ran-som free-ly gave.
 How the vic-to-ry He giv-eth O-ver sin, and death, and hell.
 He from death to life hath bro't me, Son of God, with Him to be.

REFRAIN

I Will Sing of My Redeemer

1. I will sing of my Redeemer
And His wondrous love to me;
On the cruel Cross He suffered,
From the curse to set me free.

Chorus:

Sing, oh sing of my Redeemer!
With His blood He purchased me;
On the Cross He sealed my pardon,
Paid the debt, and made me free.

2. I will tell the wondrous story,
How my lost estate to save,
In His boundless love and mercy
He the ransom freely gave.

Chorus

3. I will praise my dear Redeemer;
His triumphant pow'r I'll tell,
How the victory He giveth
Over sin, and death, and hell.
