Call to Worship

O come, let us sing to the Lord;
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!
Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!
O come, let us worship and bow down,
let us kneel before the Lord, our Maker!
For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture,
and the sheep of his hand. (Psalm 95:1,2,6,7, RSV)

Hymn "I Will Sing of My Redeemer" (Insert, vs 1-3)

Passing of the Peace

Joys and Concerns

Unison Prayer

Dear Lord Jesus,
You are always with us, guiding us along the path of your supreme design. Yet when we lack wisdom or faith, we question your love and care. Help us see the wonderful ways you are at work in our lives, so we can thank you for guiding us through the years, for the blessing of resting securely in your presence today, and for being our hope for the years ahead. In your precious name, Amen. Contributed by Pastor Phillips

Congregational Response "Go Now In Peace"
Go now in peace. Never be afraid.
God will go with you each hour of every day.
Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.
Know he will guide you in all you do.
Go now in love, and show you believe.
Reach out to others so all the world can see.
God will be there watching from above.
Go now in peace, in faith, and in love.
Amen. Amen. Amen.

ATTITUDE AND GRATITUDE

The first commandment declares: "You shall have no other gods before me." Why did God place the prohibition against idolatry at the forefront of His commandments? While Moses was on Mount Sinai receiving God's law, the Israelites fashioned a golden calf and proclaimed it the god who had delivered them from slavery in Egypt. This incident reveals humanity's tendency to shape God into an image that fits its own corrupt understanding and desires.

Like the Israelites, people today form their own ideas about who God should be, confining Him within the narrow boundaries of their selfish desires and expecting Him to conform to their wishes. They like to believe God should always act in their favor and endorse their plans. When life unfolds differently than they expect, they blame God—and, more troubling still, remain convinced they are right.

Most of the world's population does not know God, and even among Christians, only about 30 percent have read the entire Bible. Without a sound understanding of the God of the Bible, we can easily mistake our expectations for God's character and question his goodness when he does not meet them. The Apostle Paul describes this biased behavior as "They exchanged the truth about God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator" (Romans 1:25). A proper attitude and perspective help us give thanks in all circumstances.

71 I Will Sing of My Redeemer

Philip P. Bliss, 1838-1876 — James McGranahan, 1840-1907

I WILL SING OF MY REDEEMER

1. I will sing of my Redeemer
And His wondrous love to me;
On the cruel Cross He suffered,
From the curse to set me free.

Chorus:
Sing, oh sing of my Redeemer.
With His blood He purchased me.
On the Cross He sealed my pardon,
Paid the debt and made me free.

2. I will tell the wondrous story,
How my lost estate to save,
In His boundless love and mercy
He the ransom freely gave.

Chorus

3. I will praise my dear Redeemer;
His triumphant pow'r I'll tell,
How the victory He giveth
Over sin, and death, and hell.

Chorus
