

Our faith is built upon a firm foundation that cannot be shaken, and yet our hearts are often swayed by instabilities and insecurities. Help us trust in your steadfast love to conquer doubt and disbelief. Grant us your enduring peace that wells up tranquility and thanksgiving in all circumstances. May we never be moved, for you Jesus, are the same yesterday, today, and forever. Amen. (Contributed by Phillips)

"Go Now In Peace"

Go now in peace. Never be afraid. God will go with you each hour of every day. Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true. Know He will guide you in all you do. Go now in love, and show you believe. Reach out to others so all the world can see. God will be there watching from above. Go now in peace, in faith, and in love. Amen. Amen. Amen.

The Anchor for the Soul

Paul was put on trial for preaching the Gospel of Jesus. During his trial, he exercised his right as a Roman citizen and appealed to Caesar. Thus began his journey to Rome by ship—a voyage that quickly turned perilous. Fierce headwinds significantly hindered their progress, and soon a violent storm arose. For two harrowing weeks, the vessel was battered by a relentless hurricane, and hope seemed to vanish into the raging seas. But in the midst of the tempest, an angel appeared to Paul and said, “Do not be afraid. You must stand trial before Caesar; and God has graciously given you the lives of all who sail with you.” Encouraged by this divine assurance, Paul urged his fellow passengers, “Take heart, for I have faith in God that it will happen just as he told me.” Much like Paul’s voyage, our journey through life is often disrupted by sudden storms—circumstances that shake our confidence and test our faith. Yet we can choose to respond as Paul did. No matter how devastating the crisis, God’s plan for us remains unchanged. Storms may delay us, but they do not deter him. In his perfect timing, he delivers us to the mission fields prepared for us. Confidence in God’s unchanging faithfulness works like an anchor in the storm. An anchored soul does not panic, but remains at peace, confident that the one who called us will also see us through.

Abide with Me #700

1. Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
the darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

2. Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away;
change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou who changest not, abide with me.

3. I need thy presence every passing hour.
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord,
abide with me.
