

third day He rose from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and He sits at the right hand of God the Father, Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Congregational Response "Go Now In Peace"

Go now in peace. Never be afraid.

God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.

Know He will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love, and show you believe.

Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there watching from above.

Go now in peace, in faith, and in love.

Amen. Amen. Amen.

THE MASTER'S BLUEPRINT FOR COMMUNION WITH GOD

Jesus made prayer the highest priority in His life, living in constant communion with His Heavenly Father;

He taught His followers to do the same.

Prayer is the lifeline between us and our Heavenly Father. Jesus made sure the disciples knew how to pray genuinely from the heart and knew the key elements of an effective prayer life. He modeled how to tarry, listen, and wait upon the Father; He even gave them guidance as to where to pray and when to pray. In Matthew 6:6-13, Jesus provided a simple, yet deeply meaningful and powerful blueprint for what that effective prayer life should look like in our lives.

Reverend Tom “Doc” Watt has been an ordained minister for over 40 years. He and his wife, Donna, have pastored, travelled in ministry, and served in a variety of leadership and ministry roles in several churches. Additionally, Tom and Donna each have over 35 years of experience as teachers in both Christian and public schools. Tom has also taught as an adjunct professor in the School of Education at Vanguard University and continues to serve there in various capacities.
